

INTO THE BREACH, A SUCCESS STORY

Denetra Williams, former childcare-center director for the Boys, Girls, Adults Community Development Center, is serving as the interim superintendent for the Marvell-Elaine School District until Superintendent Henry Anderson can resume his duties once more.

By education and experience, she was well equipped to take on the vital role for the school district. Ms. Williams graduated from Marvell High School and obtained a degree in educational leadership at Arkansas State University. She has been a teacher, administrator, and leader in the Marvell-Elaine School District for sixteen years. She teaches and serves as the Curriculum and District Test Coordinator in addition to running the system while the superintendent is recuperating.

She has a passion for children and is beloved by a generation of them. She demonstrates for them how to strive for the best that life has to offer. As a mother, grandmother and educator, she understands the importance of giving children an early start with a first-rate education.
